There exists within urban and suburban experience areas. These provide potential for urban, rural, and suburban areas which provide outdoor, nature-based education programs. Existing landscaping and natural features. They are elementary school grounds.

A series of steps to create an experience area. A series of steps to develop the idea of a play experience area. A series of steps to develop the idea of a play experience area. A series of steps to develop the idea of a play experience area. A series of steps to develop the idea of a play experience area.